Process and Schedule

There can be more than one team from the same organisation. Team comprises of 3 to 5 persons.

We expect 20 to 25 teams for this National Project Management Team Excellence Award. Team members should have varied background including of Finance, HR, Project and Operations. In each one of the 2 simulation programs, the team will gain an experience of 1.5 year on average by virtue of taking numerous decisions and measuring the impact of such decisions through computer simulation based games.

These simulation games are used by the top business schools globally as well as the top notch business organisations.

It is a rare opportunity for the organisations to send their best team to win the first National Project Management Team Excellence Award 2018.

Day-1

The one day program will be followed by a 45 minute CrtAPM examination of 200 Marks. Average Team score will be taken for the final score of 600 points.

Day-2

This innovative computer simulation was developed by Prendo of U.K., in consultation with Shell in Europe.

There are twelve stakeholders in the simulation game for taking varied decisions in a complex project involving People, Economic and Planet. The objectives of the team is to ensure maximum satisfaction amongst all stakeholders.

Team members should also decide about the influence of each category of stakeholders in the total score which can vary from -200 to +200 points.

The actual score of the Team will be taken for the final score of 600 points.

Day-3

The simulation game was developed by Prendo of U.K., in consultation with the Major Project Association (MPA) of U.K.

There are twelve major key decision makers in constructing and managing a complex project. The objective of this simulation game is to demonstrate the project leadership quality by taking into account the spectator's interests, cost effective strategies, types of contracts to ensure timely completion and tens of complex decisions in managing the project.

Ultimately, the overall score obtained by a team in completing the project in minimum time, least cost, maximum profit, and mitigating risks, meeting of the project success criteria etc. would be taken in the final score of 600 points. The score can vary from -200 to +200 points.

Each team total score out of a maximum score of 600 points will be compiled and the winning team of the PMTEA - 2018 will be given the NTPC Trophy and award of Rs. 1.5 Lacs at end of the 3rd day.

The Team Score the second highest score out of 600 points will be given IOCL Trophy as a RUNNER UP Team at the end of the 3rd day.

CEPM Special Award of Rs. 25,000/ will be given to the Best Individual Performer in the Advanced Project Management Certification (CrtAPM).

.... it should be a pre-requisite for all PM professionals globally.

- Prof. Dr. B. Nag, IIM Calcutta

Day 2 – National Project Management Team Excellence Award Competition Computer Simulated Project Management Game on Managing Stakeholders

Managing Stakeholders simulation workshops in Delhi and Mumbai

Prendo was commissioned by Shell to design and develop a simulation of how typical spectrum of stakeholders behave during a major project. The simulation brings to life the universal leadership challenge of maximizing support across a range of parties who have different interests, agendas and motives. The simulation is used across the globe in numerous industries.

It is used in various contexts, including:

- project and program leadership
- general management and strategy
- ethical leadership and CSR
- global and cross-cultural leadership
- influencing skills and networks

KEY OUTCOMES

participants gain a number of insights and skills, including how to :

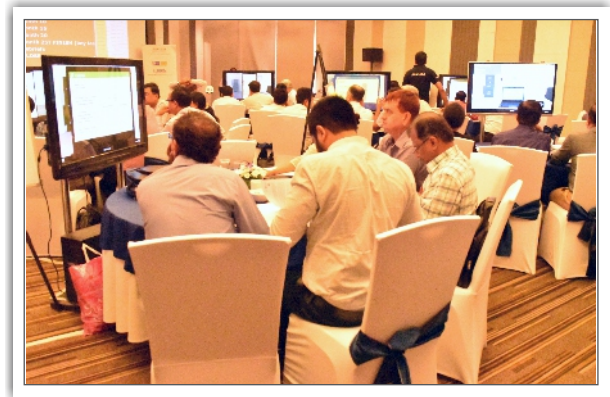

- develop detailed stakeholder analyses
- understand & use influence networks
- develop effective stakeholder and communication strategies
- balance conflicting interests
- analyse the full range of human interests & motives

Team Score Range
-200 to +200 points

Balancing of People, Economic and Planet considerations in managing a complex projects

Day 3 – National Project Management Team Excellence Award Competition Computer Simulated Project Management Game on Project Leadership

Project Leadership simulation workshops in Delhi and Mumbai

Prendo's Project Leadership simulation gives participants an intense experience of managing a complex project from planning through to operations. Teams make a series of judgments about: the contract and procurement strategy, defining the scope and changes, clarifying the project objectives, risk and stakeholder management, scheduling and resourcing. Crucially, the simulation brings to life the importance of integrating all the relevant disciplines.

Developed with the Major Projects Association, UK the simulation brings to life many key themes of advanced project management, including:

- project success: what is it, and what causes it
- project complexity and uncertainty
- the "art" of project management

KEY OUTCOMES

participants gain a number of skills and insights about:

- the importance of the "front-end" or early stages
- how to manage contracts, risk and stakeholders
- how to define and manage for project success
- decision-making & teamwork in a complex scenario

Team Score Range
-200 to +200 points

Project : Involving Hard and Soft sides in managing a complex project

These are twelve key persons who are associated with this project. The team challenge is to demonstrate project leadership to maximise the overall satisfaction of these 12 key stakeholders, timely completion of the project within cost and with good profitability.
